

Executive Level Leadership Network subscription series July 2009 – June 2010

An Australian Public Service Commission Programme

These essential events explore current issues and trends in leadership and leadership development.

These events give you regular opportunities to:

- hear from expert speakers across the APS and the private sector
- exchange ideas and approaches
- share research into best practice
- network with peers
- develop your knowledge of the different leadership initiatives being used by agencies, the private sector and the community.

Subscription benefits

These events give you regular opportunities to:

- attend all four breakfast seminars
- attend the annual forum
- substitute a colleague from your agency if you are unable to attend
- receive advance notice on upcoming events
- confirm your attendance for each event by simply emailing the programme manager

Initiative of the Australian Public Service Commission and supported by Defence, Australian Taxation Office, Centrelink, The Treasury, Veterans' Affairs, Medicare Australia, Department of Human Services, Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Local Government and ACT Health.
