

Agency	Awareness	Prevention	Assurance	Investigation	Enforcement
This table identifies Commonwealth agencies that play a key role in upholding integrity in the APS.	Promote a culture of integrity, professionalism and proper conduct through education and awareness-raising	Establish and maintain frameworks, policies and practices that support a professional, ethical and trustworthy Public Service	Use mechanisms to ensure that frameworks, policies and practices are compliant and effective in maintaining a culture of integrity, including by managing risks such as misconduct, fraud and corruption	Undertake examinations or inquiries into allegations of misconduct or malpractice	Enforce laws and prosecute crimes, including against the Commonwealth, such as fraud and corruption
Attorney-General's Department	◆	◆	◆
Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission			◆
Australian Federal Police	◆			◆	◆
Australian National Audit Office	◆	◆	◆
Australian Public Service Commission	◆	◆	◆	◆
Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions				◆	◆
Commonwealth Ombudsman	◆		◆	◆
Department of Finance			◆
Department of Home Affairs			◆
Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet			◆
Australian Human Rights Commission			◆
Independent Parliamentary Expenses Authority	◆	◆	◆	◆
Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security	◆		◆	◆
National Anti-Corruption Commission	◆	◆	◆	◆
Merit Protection Commission			◆	◆
Office of the Australian Information Commissioner			◆	◆
The Treasury			◆		